

Take a Stand Against Racial Discrimination!

The International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD) is a United Nations convention. The Convention commits its members to work towards the elimination of racial discrimination and the promotion of understanding among all races.

ICERD Day is celebrated annually on 21 March and this year the Citizens' Constitutional Forum (CCF) invites you to join the "Take a Stand Against Racial Discrimination!" campaign by submitting an original creative piece in answer to the question "How can I promote understanding among all races?"

Entries MUST be original and can be submitted under any of the following categories:

1. Poem*
2. Photo**
3. Audio Jingle***
4. Video****
5. Drawing**

All entries must be titled "Take a Stand Against Racial Discrimination" and sent together with your name and contact details to CCF by:
Post: P.O. Box 12584, Suva
Email: media1@ccf.org.fj
Hand-delivered to 23 Denison Road, Suva

Closing date: Entries must reach CCF by 4pm Friday 13th March 2015

Winners will receive a prize and a certificate on ICERD Day
